

Grading Criteria: Assessment 2 (35%)

Criterion/Standard	Marks	Standards Exceed	Standards Met	Standards Not Met
Key aspects of change and need for change	5	5-4 marks The selected case study is well summarised including the key aspects of change and the need for change is well captured.	3-2.5 marks Some of the key aspects of change has been identified. The need for change has been explained though some aspects require further explanation.	2-0 marks Contexts of the selected case study are limited or not captured and the need for change has not been understood and represented clearly.
Desire for change and barriers	5	5-4 marks Factors that promote / inhibit the motivation for support have been well identified. This include both positive and negative elements. The descriptions very clearly identify the barriers for realization of the change.	3-2.5 marks Factors that promote / inhibit the motivation for support have been identified. The inclusions have room for improvement. The descriptions identify some of the barriers for realization of the change.	2-0 marks Desire for change or objection is unclear. Barriers though identified is not explained well.
Skills & Knowledge	5	5-4 marks All skills and knowledge required has been identified with a good differentiating between what is required during and after transition. Challenges in implementing change due to skill requirements have been assessed and presented well.	3-2.5 marks Most skills and knowledge required has been identified. The differentiating between what is required during and after transition has some confusion. Challenges in implementing change due to skill requirements have been assessed and presented with some room for improvement.	2-0 marks Skills and knowledge required identification is very confusing with little to no differentiation between what's required during and after transition. Challenges in implementing change due to skill requirements have not been well presented.
Reinforcement	5	5-4 marks Reinforcements have been correctly identified and had been	3-2.5 marks Some reinforcements have been correctly identified. A	2-0 marks Reinforcements have not been correctly identified. A reasonable extend beyond what is directly mentioned in the case study. A good justification has been given on whether the incentives are adequate.	reasonable justification has been given on whether the incentives are adequate.	justification has not been given on whether the incentives are adequate.

Ranking and Graph	5	5-4 marks Ranking done for ADKAR matches well and is based on the explanations given earlier in the section. The graph has been correctly completed and barrier point identified.	3-2.5 marks Ranking done for ADKAR is adequately based on the explanations given earlier in the section. There is room for improvement. The graph has been completed and barrier point identified.	2-0 marks Ranking done for ADKAR doesn't match well with the explanations given earlier in the section. The graph has not been completed appropriately where the barrier point has not been correctly identified.
Actions to achieve ADKAR	7	7-6 marks Each action/s is well defined and addresses respective ADKAR element. The actions well incorporate how to progress past the barrier point.	5-3.5 marks Each action/s is adequately defined and addresses respective ADKAR element. Some consideration has been given in incorporating how to progress past the barrier point.	3-0 marks Some actions have been mentioned. The connection between actions and the barrier point is unclear.
Essay structure and academic conventions	3	3 marks Assignment demonstrates excellent essay structure, cohesion and coherence. The main points of the paper are clearly articulated. Paper has few or no spelling, punctuation, or grammatical errors. Appropriate referencing used to support the information presented.	2 marks Structure of assignment needs attention. The main points of the paper are present but may be unclear. The paper may have problems in spelling punctuation and/or grammatical errors. Support from academic work needs to improve.	1-0 marks Assignment lacks structure, the main points are not clearly articulated, and there is consistent spelling, punctuation and/or grammatical errors. Citations are largely absent throughout the paper.